Class History

On the eventful day of September 5, 1945, six frightened but eager youths were welcomed into the first grade of Sullivan Local School with Mrs. Hadley as their teacher. They were: Edith Ringler, Mary Ann Marshall, Glenda Keefer, Janet Foster, Frank Graham, and Don Miller.

During our second year of school Janet Foster moved to Homerville. Mrs. Furnace was our teacher and we felt quite proud of ourselves when we had finally learned to read and write.

In our third year, Mrs. Reese stood by us. Two new members joined our class, Larry Messmore from Lodi and David Miller. Janet Foster returned once again to our class.

We had Miss Miller as our teacher in the fourth grade. Nothing exciting happened this year except the Christmas program which we all were in.

In the fifth grade two more joined our class. Judy Wright from Avon Lake and Curtis Howe. Mrs. Baker was our teacher this year.

In the sixth grade Mrs. Baker painfully, but successfully gave us the push we needed to get into Jr. High School.

During our seventh grade, changing classes was quite a big event for us so called "grown-ups". Roger Weiler joined us from Homerville and Miss Gilcrest was our advisor.

In the eighth grade we felt we had finally "arrived" when we were allowed to have our first class party under the able guidance of Mr. Kilchenman.

Next came our biggest step "High School". Our class was enlarged by five. Carol Walter, Dan Nesbett, David Clark, Bob Wilson, and Dick Hawley who came from Huntington. Mr. Kilchenman was again our advisor.

The big event of our tenth grade was the operetta, "Meet Arizona". Many of us stared in this production. Mrs. Hassinger acted as our advisor this year.

In the eleventh grade Lyn Davidson joined our class from Kipton. We joined the dramatic ranks and presented "No Boys Allowed" as our class play under the direction of Mr. Kemp. That year we were hosts to the seniors at the annual Junior-Senior Prom and we used as our theme, "The Stork Club."

On September 4, 1956, seventeen "little angels" dropped in for their final stay at S.H.S. This year being busiest of them all. Getting ready for our Senior Play, "One For The Money", our trip to Washington and New York, graduation, and preparing our annual, which we named the "Spotlight". Mr. Larabee was our advisor this year.

Last Will And Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1957, being of sound mind and with no malice aforethought, do declare this to be our last will and testament and hereby bestow upon our underclassmen the following:

To our teachers, we leave a gold medal for getting us through school.

To the Juniors, we leave our good reputation, dramatical ability, and ability to get good grades.

To the Sophomores, we leave our used textbooks, study hard.

To the Freshmen, we leave a pack of notebook paper and pencils, which we never seemed to have.

To the Underclassmen, we leave a promotion in the lunch line.

WE, the SENIORS, make the following individual bequests:

I, DAVID CLARK, will part of my baritone voice to Steve Patton.

I, LYN DAVIDSON, will my position as cheerleader to Connie Hyde and hope she has "good luck" and as much fun as I have had.

I, JANET FOSTER, leave my ability to keep thin to Ronnie Finley.

I, FRANK GRAHAM, will my ability to play the trumpet to anyone windy enough.

I, RICHARD HAWLEY, will my ability to skip study hall to Tom Jordan, who never seems to make it.

I, CURTIS HOWE, will my ability to always have plenty of chewing gum on hand to Juston Jones.

I, GLENDA KEEFER, leave my place in the Drivers' Training car to anyone and hope they do better than I.

I, MARY ANN MARSHALL, leave my crown to next year's Homecoming Queen.

I, LARRY MESSMORE, will my seat in the Senior Homeroom to Tom McConnell, who is large enough to sit in it.

I, DAVID MILLER, will my ability to have a driver's license for three years and now take Drivers' Training to whom ever needs the credit.

I, DON MILLER, will my ability to have my history workbook up to date to anyone who never has time to get it done.

I, DAN NESBETT, leave this school.

I, EDITH RINGLER, will my ability to get a driver's license to Sonya Orcutt.

I, CAROL WALTER, will my place on the school paper staff to anyone that wants it.

I, ROGER WEILER, will my ability to play football to Ralph Kish.

I, ROBERT WILSON, will my handwriting ability to Emma Messmore.

I, JUDY WRIGHT, leave my ability to stay home and study at night to Midge Hastings.

Class Poem

The seniors leave this school with sorrow,
Knowing not what comes tomorrow;
As graduation day is nigh,
We leave this poem to remember us by.

David Clark's the first we meet,
At the head of the class he earned a seat;
He's handsome, fun, as well as smart,
From all our mem'ries he'll never part.

A real nice girl from Kipton came,
Miss Lyn Davidson is her name;
She has green eyes and golden hair,
And does her work with special care.

Janet Foster's full of pep,
When leading cheers, she's right in step;
Her favorite sport, we've found is swimming,
Many a prize she will be winning.

Frankie Graham and his bright red hair,
Adds to the band with a trumpet's flair;
Whenever the day is spoiled with rain,
Frank stays home with his model train.

In class Dick Hawley's awful quiet,
But on the gym floor he's a riot;
He makes the baskets one by one,
And that is how our games are won.

Curtis Howe, as you well know,
Likes to take girls to the show;
Or to a dance, round and square,
And even to the county fair.

Glenda Keefer likes men tall,
But dark and handsome most of all;
Her personality is "A" plus,
She is friend with all of us.

Mary Ann Marshall so very sweet,
To look at her is quite a treat;
She plays the sax in the high school band,
And does it with a clever hand.

One of the Messmore boys named Larry,
With all the work he has to carry;
Still has time to have his fun,
With each and all and everyone.

David Miller sure goes far,
When he's driving in his car;
The only problem that he has,
Is how to keep it filled with gas.

Don Miller is a senior, too,
He has his faults, but mighty few;
And as life's road you travel on,
When you see David, you'll see Don.

As president 'till May twenty-two,
Dan Nesbett sure will lead us through;
We know we will not go astray,
If he leads us 'till that golden day.

Edy Ringler knows it's true,
That a lot of jobs are hard to do;
But she does her job with such detail,
That everyone knows she'll never fail.

Our friend who's known as "Squeek" to all,
Just got back from a trip last fall;
Carol Walter, you have traveled far,
That you can find friends wherever you are.

Roger Weiler, our football star,
We'll find wherever ladies are;
Whether he's on land or sea,
Quite handsome he will always be.

Robert Wilson's the smartest of all,
In lessons, activities, or his hobby, baseball;
We hope his dreams will all come true,
So he can be a teacher to all of you.

Last but not least comes Judy Wright,
Every morning she looks so bright;
Voted the most talkative girl in school,
She'll always abide by the golden rule.

Now our class has paraded through,
In front of me and in front of you;
The senior class will always stay,
United by thought, although far away.
